

Aston Business School

LEICESTER CASTLE
BUSINESS SCHOOL
DE MONTFORT UNIVERSITY

2nd Games and Simulations in Accounting and Finance Education (GSAFE)
Conference – Tuesday 20th April 2021

Online via Zoom (links to follow) – Hosted by Aston University Accounting Department

9.00am Gathering of Delegates in Main Room

9.15 Welcome to the GSAFE Network

Matt Davies, Senior Lecturer in Accounting, Aston University

9.20 Welcome to Aston Business School

Professor George Feiger, Executive Dean of the College of Business and Social Sciences Aston Business School

9.25 Plenary Session 1: Opening Address – Games and Simulations in Accounting and Finance Education

Professor Jordi Carenys, EADA Business School, Barcelona; Visiting Professor Aston
University

9.55 5 minute opportunity to move rooms

10.00 Parallel Session 1

Main Room – Simulations/Games Showcase Chair: Martin Potts	Room B - Game and Simulation Deployment and Use (1) Chair: Darren Sparkes
Abdy Taminsyah, MonsoonSIM Experiential teaching and learning of accounting	Dr Gillian Vesty RMIT University Using serious games in accounting education and beyond
Dr Seow Poh Sun Singapore Management University Accounting Challenge mobile-gaming app	Andrew Smerdon, Dr Stacey Noble, Matthew Howard, Dr Sayjda Talib Lancaster University Using business game simulations to embed contemporary working practices within a degree programme
Yoshin Chetty¹ and Carley Chetty² ¹The Independent Institute of Education, Johannesburg ²The University of Johannesburg The use of games in auditing to promote learning	Tran Thanh Thuy, Professor Christian Herzig University of Kassel The effectiveness of using a Kahoot game in creating a playful learning environment: evidence from a blended course

11.00 Break – 10 minutes (return to Main Room)

11.10 Lightning Plenary 1

Accounting Bissim: developments in content, application and delivery

Darren Sparkes, De Montfort University, Leicester

11.25 Lightning Plenary 2

The Count FEFE mobile application: reflections and future developments

Matt Davies, Aston University

Martin Potts, Aston University

11.40 Plenary Session 2

Using an online simulation to teach Audit in face to face, online, and blended learning formats

Dr Susan Whittaker (Cardiff University), Helen Scott (Liverpool University)

12.10 Break – 10 minutes (opportunity to move rooms)

12.20 Parallel Session 2

Main Room – Alternative Perspectives on Games/Simulations/Playful Learning Chair: Susan Whittaker	Room B – Academic Perspectives on Games/Simulations/Playful Learning Chair: Matt Davies
Kelly Watson, Holly Hancocks Bromsgrove and Redditch BC CIPFA in the Midlands sixth form management games: a public finance simulation game	Dr Jatin Pancholi, Richard Cartwright University of Southampton Accounting education: literature review and experiences with playful learning
Dr Ilias Basioudis, Dr Achilleas Karayiannis Aston University Negotiation competition skills in Higher Education: a vital cross-disciplinary competency	Dr Zlatinka Blaber Salem State University Accounting classroom contests: cartoons in need of captions and captions in need of cartoons

12.55 Break – 15 minutes (opportunity to move rooms)

13.10 Parallel Session 3

Main Room – Game/Simulation Deployment and Use (2) Chair: Toby York	Room B – Outside the Classroom and Online Chair: Matt Davies
Dr Ian Birchmore Aberystwyth University Establishing a wider environment in which to embed a simulation to maximise learning and deepen the student experience in the final year of an accounting and finance degree	Dr Stijn Derammelaere Ghent University The DUGA mobile and education application
Alice Shepherd, Dr Richard Crossley University of Leeds Embedding commercial skills for finance professionals via a business simulation	Dr Patricia Everaert, Emiel Sanders Ghent University Using Monopoly to engage students online

13.50 5 minutes to allow delegates to move rooms

13.55 Plenary Session 3: Concept Mapping and Playful Learning through ‘Colour Accounting’

Toby York, Middlesex University

14.25 Formal Launch of the GSAFE Network

Professor Andy Lymer, Aston University

14.30 Close

Should you have any specific requirements or require any other information please email m.l.davies@aston.ac.uk.